Report on Talents Day- An event with a folk and traditional touch.

11-03-2022 at 10.30 AM @ APSAS Multimedia Hall

The College Organized Talents on Friday, the 11th March, and the Chief Guest was Sri B M Venkatesh, APSAS Alumnus, Cine and TV actor, and Voice-over Artist and the Guest of Honour was Shri Kadabagere Muniraju, Folk singer and National Awardee. The President of the program was Prof. K P Narasimha Murthy, President APS Educational trust, and event was graced by General Secretary, Vice President, Joint Secretary and Mentor and Trustee, Sri Mohan Dev Alva of APSET

The programme commenced with the guests being taken to the dais with traditional folk dance of Karnataka, namely, "Tamate Vadya" and "Dollu Kunita", by our students both girls and boys. Invocation by Ashwini and Karan, welcome of guests by Mr. Hareesha.M.C, HOD Department of Kannada and lighting of the traditional lamp by all the dignitaries marked the inauguration. It was followed by introductory remarks by the Principal Dr B Jayashree, wherein madam highlighted the role of talents day and how it helps students to not only showcase their talents but also raises their level of confidence. Mrs Mamatha, from Dept. of Psychology introduced the Chief Guest.

Sri. B M Venkatesh, the Chief Guest felt very happy and unbelievable that once an ordinary student could rise to the level of a celebrity and share the dais with stalwarts of the educational institution of which he was once a student and took baby steps in learning art forms as drama and acting. He advised students to pursue one or the other hobby based on their talents.

The Guest of Honour was introduced by Dr Ramesha K, HOD PG Dept of Economics. Sri Kadabagere Muniraju, popular folk artist narrated the difficult path that he had to tread as he belonged to a poor, peasant family with rural background. In the course of his life he worked as carpenter, painter, and electrician at the same time keeping his focus on education. Armed with a PG in Kannada, he worked as Principal and now runs a school of his own. He enthralled the students and audience with his soul full folk songs and thus, tried to raise awareness among students about this disappearing form namely, folk and folk culture. He tried to bring to fore the philosophy behind the folk songs.

Both the guests were honored by the APS College, and all the dignitaries on the dais took part in the felicitation.

The President of the programme, Prof. K P Narasimha Murthy, was full of appreciation of the efforts of the students and staff and more importantly the Principal in holding such an event and congratulated all. He advised students to follow on the footsteps of the distinguished guests.
